

6516208161.txt

It is my opinion that the instant weather and traffic needs to be left on xm because it is much easier to find rather than trying to scan through the am/fm stations to find the weather and traffic for the city we are going to. With the xm we can go to the channel for the city will be traveling to or through and get it quickly. I also believe that this is safer for all the traveling public if we are spending less time looking for a local radio station.